- Dedicated student chat system for direct messaging with your teacher(s) and quick questions to our team
- Access to our exclusive student chat forum and blog with learning tips, cultural insights, language resources, motivation articles, and occasional exclusive offers
- Full platform features: teacher profiles, scheduling calendar, lesson booking, progress tracking, and priority support

This €7 is a one-time payment – not a subscription – and gives you lifetime access to these tools (as long as the platform is active).

Special launch offer: The first 100 students will receive this entry completely free – no €7 fee required! Sign up early to claim yours.

How It Works – Lesson Pricing

- Lesson Price: Each 50-minute lesson is €21. Shorter 30-minute lessons are available at €12.
- Our Commission: Built into the price – we take a low 10% commission to cover matching you with the right teacher, easy scheduling, platform tools, and dedicated support. You pay one clear amount per lesson, and your teacher receives the rest.
- Buy single lessons or save even more with upfront lesson packages. This keeps things focused and helps maintain momentum in your learning.

Start with single lessons to try it out, then upgrade to packages for bigger savings as you commit to more practice. All packages give you full access to our platform features (after paying the €7 entry fee or qualifying for the free launch offer).
